

---

Eng. Ahmed Abd El Aziz

Current Title: Accreditation and Evaluation Department Manager

Business in brief

Ahmed has been working as CMMI Lead Appraiser, Enterprise Architect and Process Improvement Consultant and Instructor for many years. Ahmed has a long experience in software development, project management and technical department management. Ahmed has worked with a variety of organizations including governmental, military, and private sector organizations inside and outside Egypt. As a Lead Appraiser Ahmed led more than 120 appraisals in addition to more than 120 pre appraisals and spot checks in Egypt, Saudi Arabia, Emirates, Syria and China. As an Enterprise Architect Ahmed led 4 enterprise architecture and digital transformation projects in Egypt and Saudi Arabia. Ahmed provided consultation in different Process Improvement models like CMMI for Development, CMMI for Services, Six Sigma, and SPIG for many organizations. Ahmed taught many Digital Transformation, TOGAF, Lean Six Sigma, Project Management and Process Improvement courses which are highly appreciated and evaluated by professional trainees.

Organizations

Ahmed has been working in SECC, ITIDA, MCIT as a Lead Appraiser, Consultant and Instructor since September 2006. In the preceding nine years Ahmed has worked in HARF Information Technology in many positions starting from Junior Developer, Senior Developer, Project Manager, Internet Department Manager and finally Process Improvement Leader.

Certifications and designations

- TOGAF® 9 Certified from The Open Group, UK, in February 2015
- Certified COBIT® 5 Implementer and Assessor from APMG, UK, in January 2015
- Certified IMP<sup>3</sup>rove Guide from IMP<sup>3</sup>rove Academy, European Union, in May 2013
- Lean Six Sigma Black Belt for IT and Software from Systonomy Limited, UK, in August 2011
- Certified Lead Appraiser for Services from SEI, USA, in February 2010
- Certified Lead Appraiser for Development from SEI, USA, in March 2008
- Diploma in Computer Science and Information from Cairo University, Egypt, in 1995
- Bachelor of Science in Engineering from Cairo University, Egypt, in 1993